

ONLINE PRIVACY POLICY

I am committed to protecting your privacy, and this notice explains my online information practices to that end. For my policy regarding the use and disclosure of your medical, or protected health information (PHI) in the course of clinical treatment, please refer to the Privacy Notice found under the Policies section of the main website menu.

INFORMATION COLLECTION AND USE

I collect information about visitors to my website so that I may provide an experience responsive to user needs. I do not collect medical information or credit card information through my website. My site uses forms in which you provide contact information (including your name, address, telephone number, and email address) so that you may request information. I receive and store any information you enter on my website, or give me in any other way, including through email, telephone, or other communications. You do not need to provide any personal information in order to use my website. I will not sell, share, trade or otherwise use any information you disclose on the site unless you provide written permission.

I may also collect non-personally identifiable information about you, such as your use of my website, communication preferences, aggregated data relative to your services, and responses to promotional offers and surveys. I may use or disclose aggregate information only where no individual is identified, for a number of purposes, including: (a) compiling aggregate statistics of usage for improving the website; (b) developing, maintaining and administering the website; and (c) following up on comments and other messages that you submit through the website.

Please do not include any credit card information in your electronic communication unless through transaction fulfillment process sites, or my customer contact process.

This website and my correspondence may contain links to other websites. I am not responsible for the privacy practices or the content of such sites.

SECURITY

This website has security measures in place to protect against the loss, misuse or alteration of the information under my control. If my website allows you to enter sensitive information (such as a credit card number), I encrypt the transmission of that information using secure socket layer technology (SSL).

I may also at times provide information about you to third parties to administer services on my behalf, such as vendors who process credit card payments. I will only share information about you that is necessary for the third party to provide the requested service. These companies are prohibited from retaining, sharing, buying, selling, storing or using your personally identifiable information for any secondary purposes.

I follow generally accepted standards to protect the personal information submitted to me, both during transmission and once I receive it. Since no method of transmission over the internet is one hundred percent secure, I cannot guarantee its absolute confidentiality.

GOOGLE ANALYTICS AND COOKIES

I may use a tool called "Google Analytics" to collect information about use of this website, such as how often users visit the website, what pages they visit when they do so, and what other sites they used prior to coming to this website. Google Analytics collects only the IP address assigned to you on the date you visit this website, rather than your name or other identifying information.

Google Analytics plants a permanent cookie on your web browser to identify you as a unique user the next time you visit this website. This cookie cannot be used by anyone but Google, Inc. The information generated by the cookie will be transmitted to and stored by Google on servers in the United States.

I use the information received from Google Analytics only to improve services on this website. I do not combine the information collected through the use of Google Analytics with personally identifiable information.

Google's ability to use and share information collected by Google Analytics about your visits to this website is restricted by the Google Privacy Policy <http://www.google.com/policies/privacy>. You can prevent Google Analytics from recognizing you on return visits to this website by disabling the Google Analytics cookie on your browser.

COLLECTION AND USE OF PERSONAL INFORMATION OF CHILDREN UNDER AGE 13

I am committed to protecting the online privacy of children. In accordance with the Children's Online Privacy Protection Act ("COPPA"), I will not knowingly collect any personally identifiable information from children under the age of thirteen without first obtaining parental consent. Prior to providing any personally identifiable information (your name, email address, address, phone number etc.), children under the age of thirteen must have a parent or legal guardian complete and return (by email or regular mail) a Parental Consent Form to ajc@AJCtherapy.com or

Anthony J. Connors, JD, LMHC
352 7th Avenue, Suite 705
New York, New York 10001

The consent form states that the child's "Parent" or "Legal Guardian", by his or her signature, consents to the collection and transfer of the child's personally identifiable information. Consent may be revoked by completing a "Revocation of Parental Consent Form" and sending it to the email or physical mailing address above.

It is also my intention to adhere to the Children's Advertising Review Unit (CARU) Guidelines on Internet advertising with its special sensitivities regarding solicitations to children under thirteen. I encourage parents/guardians to supervise and join their children in using the internet.

TRANSFER OF DATA ABROAD

If you are visiting this website from a country other than the country in which my servers are located, your communication may result in the transfer of information across international boundaries. By visiting this website and communicating electronically with me, you consent to such transfers.

COMPLIANCE WITH LAWS AND LAW ENFORCEMENT

I cooperate with government and law enforcement officials, as well as private parties to enforce and comply with the law. I will disclose any information about you to government or law enforcement officials or private parties as I, in my sole discretion, believe necessary or appropriate to respond to claims and legal process, to protect my property and rights or the property and rights of a third party, to protect the safety of the public or any person, or to prevent or stop activity I consider to be illegal or unethical. I will also share your information to the extent necessary to comply with the rules, regulations and policies of the Internet Corporation for Assigned Names and Numbers (ICANN).

To the extent that I am legally permitted to do so, I will take reasonable steps to notify you in the event that I am required to provide your personal information to third parties as part of legal process.

CHANGES TO THIS POLICY

I reserve the right to modify this Online Privacy Policy at any time. If I do so, I will post those changes to my website.

If I make material changes to this Policy, I will notify you here, by email, or by means of a notice on my home page, at least thirty days prior to the implementation of the changes.

CORRECTING, UPDATING AND REMOVING PERSONAL INFORMATION

You may alter, update or deactivate your account information or opt out of receiving communications from me at any time. You may send an email to ajc@AJCtherapy.com or you may send mail to Anthony J. Connors, JD, LMHC at 352 7th Avenue, Suite 705, New York, New York 10001. I will respond to your request for access or to modify or deactivate your information within thirty (30) days.
